

Back by popular demand, please join us for the 2026 UC/UC Health Addiction Center Summer Speaker Series. The series will highlight cutting-edge UC addiction research and UC-community collaborations focused on prevention and treatment.

Host: T. John Winhusen, PhD

Donald C. Harrison Endowed Chair in Medicine
Professor of Psychiatry & Vice Chair of Addiction Sciences
Director, UC/UC Health Addiction Center, University of Cincinnati

Beyond Daily Dosing: Comparing Extended-Release and Sublingual Buprenorphine for Opioid Use Disorder in Pregnancy and Postpartum—Research Evidence and Lived Experience

Wednesday,
June 10, 2026
12:00–1:00 p.m.

T. John
Winhusen, PhD,
University of Cincinnati

Kelsie Buchanan,
Recovery
Advocate

Characterizing Heavy Drinking in Midlife and Older Adults via Virtual Reality Alcohol Administration and Qualitative Interviews

Wednesday,
July 8, 2026
12:00–1:00 p.m.

Victor
Schneider, PhD,
University of Cincinnati

Christian C.
Garcia, PhD,
University of Cincinnati

Towards Personalized Medicine for Opioid Use Disorder: Analyses of Data from the Veterans Health Administration

Wednesday,
August 12, 2026
12:00–1:00 p.m.

Corey J. Hayes,
PharmD, PhD,
MPH, University
of Arkansas for Medical Sciences

Daniel Bebo,
MD,
University of Cincinnati

Registration free, open to the public and now available for all virtual presentations. Register today:
med.uc.edu/institutes/CAR/summer-speaker-series/speaker-series-2026

The Summer Speaker Series is sponsored by the UC/UC Health Addiction Center.

One credit hour of Ohio continuing education credit will be offered in psychology for each session. Additionally, these programs are approved by the University of Cincinnati School of Social Work for continuing education credit for social workers, counselors, and marriage and family therapists licensed in Ohio. Details for requesting CE credit will be provided at the completion of each session.